2 + 5 =
I grow all year to make a red, ripe fruit with seeds on the outside. I grow on a vine. What am I?

5 - 2 =
I’m a member of the rose family and I grow on trees. I come in many varieties but I’m seen mainly as red or green. What am I?

4 + 4 =
I’m rough and fuzzy on the outside but green on the inside. I grow on vines. What am I?

3 + 3 =
I grow on trees in warm climates and produce a large amount of Vitamin C. What am I?

0 + 1 =
I grow on small trees. I can be baked in a pie or put on top of ice cream. What am I?

3 + 3 =
I grow on trees in warm climates and produce a large amount of Vitamin C. What am I?

2 + 2 =
I’m long and white and live inside my yellow peel while I grow from a plant. What am I?

2 + 0 =
I’m green on the outside with a large seed in the inside called a pit. I grow on a tree. What am I?

3 + 2 =
I grow on a vine and sometimes I don’t have seeds. I can be green or purple. What am I?

4 + 3 =
I’m available to eat in the summer and I make the tastiest ice cream. I grow on a tree. What am I?

1 + 3 =
I have a sour taste but mixed with water and sugar I make a delicious drink. I grow on an evergreen tree. What am I?

3 + 2 =
I grow on a vine and sometimes I don’t have seeds. I can be green or purple. What am I?

1 + 1 =
I am shaped like a pyramid, green on the outside and white on the inside. I grow on trees. What am I?

4 + 3 =
I’m available to eat in the summer and I make the tastiest ice cream. I grow on a tree. What am I?